Santa Cruz, Bolivia

A psychology graduate with academic excellence, I possess solid skills and knowledge in psychology. In addition to holding a master's degree in Business Management and being a PhDc in Economics and Administration, I am currently pursuing an MBA in Business Development and Creation. I believe my education provides me with a strategic perspective and a deep understanding of business and economics.

With 10 years of professional experience in the academic and administrative sectors within educational settings, I have developed skills and experience in various areas, including business consulting, human resources management, design, and execution of training and development programs, as well as in teaching and research.
