

JUAN PABLO ZEGADA ARTEAGA

Graduate in Law from the Bolivian Catholic University (UCB), with a Master's degree in Business Law from the Bolivian Private University (UPB) with the collaboration of the University of Los Andes in Colombia.

During his 25 years of professional career he has advised various companies nationwide. He is currently Secretary General and National Legal Director of the Bolivian Private University. He was a Senior Associate at the Moreno Baldivieso Law Firm.

Since 2008, he has been a Professor of the Subject of Labor Law at UPB in Undergraduate and Postgraduate Programs. He has also taught several courses in Undergraduate and Postgraduate programs related to Negotiation and Alternative Dispute Resolution Methods. He is Academic Director of the Master's Degree in Business Law at UPB.

He is currently a Conciliator and Arbitrator of the Conciliation and Arbitration Center of the Chamber of Industry, Commerce and Services of Cochabamba.

He has written various update and analysis articles on Labor Law.