

CURRICULUM VITAE

MONICA BATALLANOS SANDOVAL

Extensive experience in the education sector, strategic management, and human resources management. Holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Universidad Mayor de San Simón and a Master's in Strategic Human Resources Management from Universidad de Salamanca - Spain, where she was awarded the Fundación Simón I. Patiño scholarship.

Cochabamba - Bolivia

+591-67474260

monicabatallanos@gmail.com
mbatallanos@upb.edu

www.linkedin.com/in/monica-batallanos-sandoval-c6115bs

She also earned a Master's in Business Administration from Columbus IBS Business School in Spain. Her additional qualifications include a Diploma in Project Management, Evaluation, and E-Learning Education from Universidad Nacional de San Martín, Buenos Aires, and a Diploma in Competency-Based Higher Education from Universidad Mayor de San Simón.

Certified as a Coach specializing in Emotional Intelligence by Universidad Europa Campus and the Red del Coach.

In her professional career, she has held various positions at Universidad Privada Boliviana since 2012, including Director of Continuing Education, responsible for quality management processes, Director of the Regional University Extension Center in Cochabamba, and currently, Academic Director of Continuing Education under the Vice-Rectorate of Postgraduate and Continuing Education at UPB. She also serves as Academic Director of Diplomas in Human Resource Management and has been a lecturer in Human Resource Management since 2015.

Previously, she gained experience in human resources management as a Recruitment Specialist at El Corte Inglés in Valladolid, Castilla y León, Spain, in 2010. She also served as General Coordinator for Fundación San Valero – SEAS España in Bolivia.